catch the light

After formal business we invite speakers who are involved in the Royston community to give a short presentation. This year we will hear from Ian McDonald of 'Catch the Light', who is working with Royston Youth Action on Wellbeing and Resilience for Young People. Ian says: "We are driven by our passion and belief that young people and communities in Scotland deserve the best quality services to achieve their highest aspirations".

We have also invited representatives from the Scottish Prison Service (SPS) to display plans for the proposed new prison (HMP Glasgow) at Provanmill, just up the road from Blochairn. They will be happy to answer any questions.

And, after all that, you can enjoy refreshments and chat to staff and Management Committee Members or with our guests.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Calling All Members - Don't Miss 5 in a Row!

Under the Association's Rules if a Member misses 5 consecutive AGM's without apology their membership automatically ends. Give us a call if you have any questions about this.

To be in the draw get your entry to us by 5pm on Thursday 20 June. Winners will be announced on Friday. You can deliver your answers to the office or email michael@blochairn.org.

To be in the draw for a pair of tickets tell us:

1. What is PINK's real name?
2. Complete the line: "Walk me home in the ....."
3. Who was PINK singing to in "Mr President" ?

Community Citizenship Award

Since 2013 we have sponsored a Community Citizenship Award for our local Primary Schools. Judges look at the journal that Pupils have kept to record their community activities and consider how well they have managed the Curriculum for Excellence. The Curriculum encourages Pupils to be a Confident Individual; a Successful Learner; a Responsible Citizen and an Effective Contributor.

Past winners at Royston Primary are Ephraim Chiwara; Hayley Brown; Tamzin McLeish; Jack Anderson, Savannah Jeffrey and Sofea Ahmad, (pictured). Past winners at St Roch's Primary are Sean Paul Faulds; Eve Gillespie; Rebecca Kyle, Lillias Sidique, Theodocia Glover and Milie Carroll. Winners for 2019 will be announced at the AGM.

Win a Fantastic Prize at the AGM!

For the AGM to go ahead we need a minimum number of people according to the Rules. It's called a quorum. If a quorum isn't achieved the AGM must be rearranged. We know that Members attend to show their support for the Association but we like to make it a bit more exciting by offering a really good raffle prize. This year we have a £300 gift voucher which can be used in any store in Buchanan Galleries. To be in the draw you must be an Association Member and actually be at the AGM. The Tenant Bonus Scheme prize draw for May and June will be made. Hopefully the winners will be in the room!

AGM Buffet

After the formal business there will be refreshments available and you can enjoy a chat with other Members or with Staff or Management Committee Members or with our guests.
